

North Georgia Conference United Methodist Men

President's Report – February 2021

Website/Social Media

- Ike Moore made regularly weekly updates to the website, while I made updates to the social media accounts.

Conference/Jurisdiction/District

- I sent an email with the UMM February 2021 events to the Conference Board of Laity, the District Lay Leaders, District Lay Servant Ministries Directors, Black Methodist for Church Renewal, and the Conference Communications Office
- I received an email from Bill Martin, Conference Lay Leader, concerning Annual Conference being virtual again this year also.
- Led the Executive Committee Meeting on February 16th.
- I had a conversation with Bishop Sue concerning gender-based and sexual violence and invited her to speak to the NGCUMM.
- I attended the South Carolina UMM virtual conference on February 26th.

Social Issues

- Black History Month program - The Center for Early African Christianity on February 6, 2021. Early African Christianity.
- Black History Month program – Colonial and Postcolonial African Christianity on February 13, 2021. <https://youtu.be/VxWISJLkss8>.

Men's Ministry

- Peachtree Road UMC inquired about Radical Mentoring, I referred them to our Spiritual Director Jacque Williams
- I began talking to Jacque Williams and John Heath about Walk to EMMAUS, promoting that program in the NGCUMM.
- Louis Johnson, Leadership Development Director, communicated to me the schedule for this ministry for the rest of the year. We began promoting the Understanding Men's Ministry training on our social media accounts.
- Continued my conversation with Dan Sartor of Richmond Graduate University about Recovery Ministry. We established a date for an interview.
- Held several discussions with Alpharetta First and St. James about the bible study and conference.
