

North Georgia Conference United Methodist Men President's Report – September 2021

Website/Social Media

- Ike Moore made regularly weekly updates to the website, while I made updates to the social media accounts.
- Promoted the upcoming Central South and Central West District Meetings.
- Continued to promote the movie “Show Me The Father”

Conference/Jurisdiction/District

- Communicated with the North Georgia Conference office about the 2021 United Methodist Men's Give Day.
- Received the meeting minutes from the September Southeastern Jurisdiction UMM meeting. Jerry Stillabower and Cary Loesing attended this meeting.
- Communicated with the General Commission on UMM about District President Installation Services and Certificates.
- Led the September Executive Committee meeting for the NGCUMM.
- Communicated with the District Presidents about the importance of ministry to lay men in the church, and conducting District UMM meetings virtually.
- Contacted by the GCUMM about converting the Charter List to 8 Districts, they are awaiting changes to be made by the General Council on Finance and Administration.
- Communicated with the District offices about upcoming October 2021 events.
- Discovered a major discrepancy in the Quarterly Charter Report as some District Presidents are not receiving this information. I sent the presidents an Excel spreadsheet version of the report, apologizing for the miscommunication. I communicated to GCUMM who should and should not (former District Presidents) receive these reports going forward.
- I communicated to the Local Church Presidents who their District President is via email.

North Georgia Conference United Methodist Men President's Report – September 2021

Social Issues

- Continued to lead an online small group on the book “The Color of Compromise.” This group actually grew to more than twice the size in the month of August.
- Attended the “Bridging the Gap Men’s Fellowship” cookout at St. James UMC that was co-sponsored by the UMM at Alpharetta First, Mount Pisgah, and St. James UMC. This is another installment in the ongoing ministry of reconciliation across racial lines.
- Submitted another article for consideration for publication

Men’s Ministry

- Communicated with various people within the United Methodist Men concerning physical health problems that needed to be addressed.
- Began communicating with speakers to come and address the United Methodist Men on various topics.
- Began to show the individuals segments of last year’s Virtual Conference on all our social media accounts.
- Received the August Executive Committee meeting minutes and the financial report from the NGCUMM secretary and treasurer respectively.
- I interviewed several speakers for virtual programs that will premiere in November 2021.
- Began a conversation with Rock This World Productions about promoting an upcoming movie called “Game Changer”
